

Accident Investigation

Duration - 2 days

Aims and objectives

On completion of the course delegates will

- understand the process and purpose of investigating accidents in the workplace
- The legal and organisational requirements for reporting and recording of such accidents

Who should attend?

The course is designed for persons with responsibilities for investigating accidents in the workplace including line managers, supervisors and safety representatives.

Prior Knowledge - No prior knowledge is required

Course content

- Principles of accident prevention
- Benefits of accident prevention
- Basic concepts of human factors
- Accident reporting and scope of investigation
- Accident investigation techniques
- Stages of Accident Investigation
- Practical exercises and case study.

Certification - All delegates who complete the course will receive a certificate of attendance