

NEBOSH National General Certificate

Duration - 10 days

Aims and objectives

The course aims to provide delegates

- with sufficient knowledge to be able to complete the NEBOSH written and practical assessments.
- with an understanding of health and safety legislation
- enable delegates to monitor safety performance in their workplace
- investigate accidents effectively
- assist in the design and implementation of safe systems of work and accident prevention programmes.

Who should attend?

The course is designed for newly appointed safety advisors, managers and others with responsibility for the management of safety within the workplace.

Prior Knowledge - No prior knowledge is required

Course content

Unit NGC 1

- Element 1 - Foundations in Health & Safety
- Element 2 - Health & Safety Policy
- Element 3 - Organising for Health & Safety
- Element 4 - Promoting a positive health & safety culture
- Element 5 - Risk Assessment
- Element 6 - Principles of Control
- Element 7 - Monitoring, Review and Audit
- Element 8 - Incident and Accident Investigation
Recording and Reporting

Unit NGC 2

- Element 1 - Movement of People and Vehicles
- Element 2 - Manual and Mechanical Handling
- Element 3 - Work Equipment
- Element 4 - Electricity
- Element 5 - Fire
- Element 6 - Chemical and Biological Hazards
- Element 7 - Physical and Psychological Health Hazards
- Element 8 - Construction Activities

Unit NGC 3

- Delegates to carry out an unaided inspection of a workplace and complete a written report to management on their findings.

Examinations - Delegates will undertake each unit exam (unit 1 & 2) on the Friday afternoon of each week.

Certification - All delegates who successfully complete all 3 written and practical assessments will receive a certificate award from the National Examination Board in Occupational Safety and Health.