

Safety for Directors

Duration - 1 day

Aims and objectives

On completion of the course delegates will

- understand the roles and responsibilities of senior executives in relation to health & safety.
- recognise the importance of integrating health & safety objectives with other business objectives to reduce overall business risk.
- understand the consequences of failing to manage health & safety at boardroom level.
- understand the principles of management systems, continual improvement and the need for annual reporting in relation to health & safety.

Who should attend?

Directors, governors, trustees, officers and their equivalents in the private, public and voluntary sector.

Prior Knowledge - No prior knowledge is required

Course content

- Civil & Criminal Liabilities
- Accident Costs
- Corporate Manslaughter
- Safety & Risk Management Models
- Directors Code of Practice
- Corporate Governance

Certification - All delegates who complete the course will receive a certificate of attendance